The Annual Camping - A Wholesome Family Adventure

By Bro. Toti Ayo

It was the renaissance period, the latter part of 1984, when a small group of some twenty brothers/sisters realized that it was time to do something with then the APOAA of Southern California. After years in limbo . . . after years of organizational disfunction, these brothers and sisters decided to re-activate and commit themselves to do something that will hopefully provide them some meaning and build an organization that can stand the test of time.

We were certain with one thing this time — we had to keep family values in the forefront. We had to be a family-oriented organization if we were to succeed. While most were then bachelors, naive so to speak, as new-comers in a foreign land, one by one, we were starting to build our respective families. While many still had within them the collegiate fratman mindset, others had the enthusiasm and visionary ideals of Brother Christian and Betta David and Brother Dan Nino in forcing the issue of re-organizing. Yes, I remember those days. . . I remember what we've been through. . .

After one of our monthly meetings in early 1985 at the Pizza Hut in Beverly Blvd and Normandie in Los Angeles, a few of us proceeded to Brother Bonjio Ingco's nearby apartment in Mariposa. It was in that gathering that I remember Brother Christian bring out the idea of a family camping. Being with the US Navy at that time, he offered to provide camping tents for most of us who didn't have one. . .for only ten dollars. However, he didn't provide us with air mattress . . .For first time campers like Racquel and myself, we didn't know what to expect. We were only sure of one thing though (at least, I was): that we were going to have fun in the company of some thirty individuals (this count already included family members present). Patrick, my eldest, now going on 15, was then three months old in his mom's tummy. It was a struggle to sleep on a rough, stoney ground with one's back on the tent's canvass floor. No one told us to bring an air mattress! We could only laugh when we look back. . .

Camping 2000 at Emmawood

The Heat Is On! The annual APO camping is on the roll again. For this year, we moved the campsite closer to the beach-much closer than you think. We are now in the process of fine-tuning the intricate wisdom of the survivors of the past campers and its logistic fronts. Your thirty-five dollars will be stretched to your wildest imagination ever. Besides being tax deductible, it is your gateway to five world class meals courtesy of our world famous Alpha Phi Omega Chefs. We have everything under the sun except hot shower. For maximum pleasure, bring extra chairs and tables for your personal use. Bring your own chairs and move around the beach as you watch the tides roar as it hits the shore. Lay down and turn on your radio, sip your favorite drinks and imagine your own private backyard! Ah life is sweet, let it simmer your imagination with your own tantalizing sun for you have until Monday to quench your thirst of solitude. Welcome to Emma Wood State Beach.

Official check-in time is 2:00PM. Fourteen dollars payable at the gate for two days of no holds bar Mardi Gras. Registration for your ID wristband starts in the morning. The first meal is Saturday evening. You are on your own if you come in early. Don't forget to bring extra foods and drinks to share with your favorite chat mates. Vons Supermarket is only a stone throw away. Bring your favorite store coupons for discounts. Bakeries, and other mini stores (Winchell's etc.) are all in the same areas. You can't loose. If you love junk foods, they can hear you. Life is wonderful. Tell the Martians!

To make sure the fun never stops, we have for the first time a "bar and grill" manager (Bro. Angel Pangilinan) to make sure supplies never run dry. Goat, lechon, and other forms of animals that you can find in Noah's Ark will be at the site. Alcoholic as well as non-alcohol drinks will be plentiful. If you have a "special pulutan" that you would like to share with us, please do so for APO shall have "feast" unto it. Just bring plenty of kwentong kutsero to enhance the effect.

Greetings!

Here we are again, katatapos lang ng ating mga ibang activities. In all of them, we look to team effort for their success. Thank you sa mga sumuporta at nagbigay ng tulong.

- Dancescape 2000 was chaired by Bro. Rene Calvario and assisted by Bro. Louie Rojas. It got our chairman quite worried there when people just slowly trickled in but was relieved to see them started showing up much later in the evening. There was an abundance supply of finger foods (as promised) and good company (always when you're with friends). Some after having shed their inhibitions off "swing the night away" and had fun, fun, fun with DI Bros – Donny Rondilla, Pete Primavera, Bobet Lara, Tony Gomez, etc. Bros Rene and Louie, your hard work and energy is highly recognized.

- Our 2nd Garage Sale was also a good turnout with the coordination of our Vice Pres. Bro Jayare Bayani and the help of those who showed up in spite of their busy schedule.
- Our annual camping is on the way. Please send your reservation and you are guaranteed an enjoyable Memorial weekend. Programs and games have been planned through the coordination of our Chairpersons Teddy and Aileen Ramos.

Our May General Membership meeting will be at the camping. See you there !!!

Fraternally yours,
Jun Linsangan
APOPLA President

Matira Ang Matibay...

By The General

Isang umaatikabong barilan ang nangyari noong nakaraang Sabado sa Santa Clarita. Nagdanak ng dugo at maraming nasaktan at nasugatan. Subalit ng matapos ang lahat, lahat ay masayang-masaya. Ang akin pong tinitukoy ay ang nakaraang aktibidad natin na "Paintball Game". Ang grupo ay nahati sa dalawang team (anong tagalog ng team), Purple Team (mukha naming pink ang itsura) na pinangungunahan ni General Tagudin (dating Top Gun Champion daw) at si Richard Resurrection. Kasama din nila sina Tony G., Lito Tarc, Bong Hagibis, Grant, Jan at mga kaibigan, Manny A, Isiah at kaibigan at ang mga bihag ni Tony at Richard. Sa kabila naman ay ang magiging na White Team na pinangungunahan ni General Bobet Lara at kasama niya ang Pangulong Jun. Nandidiyan si Willie, Louie, Rene, Kumander Bonjie, Jerome Ph.D., Jerome G., Jiebon at si Joey A. (ngunit nagdefect sa kabila).

Si Presidente ay umaalalay lang sa likod sapagkat hindi raw dapat mabaril ang Presidente. Sa madalit sabi ay nilampaso ng white team ang pink, ehe purple team pala. Ginamitan ng umaatikabong Biltzkrieg Attack. Ayoko sanang maging "bias" dahil hindi maganda sa manunulat ang merong pinapaburan pero wala akong magagawa dahil sa iyon ang tutuo.

Ang mahalaga ay masaya ang lahat. Nanumbalik ang pagiging bata ng mga brods (ngunit kung tatanungin mo ang mga misis, hindi naman nawala ang pagkabata). Si Kumander Bonjie ay napatunayang mananarget. Pagkatapos ng palaro, naghamon ng piso-pisong shooting (kahit saan man dalhin, kailangan may sugal). Si Gen. Herman naman ay naging Punk rocker, tinamaan sa ulo naging green ang buhok. Ang tanong eh, bakit naging resurrection si Richard. Ang bawat isa ay merong pagkakatataong mabuhay uli ng isang beses (o bes lang), ngunit si Resurrection ay may talong beses daw nabuhay (daig pa si Jesus). Nandiyan din naman ang magpartner na Alpha, Rene at Louie (montik pang Thelma and Louise) kalaban si Tarc. May isang pagkakataon na pinutakte nila Willie, Jerome, Joey (ngunit dagdefect sa kalaban) at ang buong grupo ang kampo ng Purple ngunit kahit anong giting ni Hagibis at Tagudin ay hindi nila nakaya ang Blitz. Kailangang mabigyan ng Purple Heart Medal si Jerome Gomez sa dami ng inabot na tama (pero masaya pa rin). Marami pang masayang pangyayari na naganap, bahala ng magkwento si Kumander Bonjie sa Camping.

Maraming salamat sa dumalo at simula po lamang ito. Sa susunod na pagtututos. /H.L.

Flashback! Flashback! On its 16th Year...

The Annual Camping - A Wholesome Family Adventure

But we look back with pride and joy. With pride because we learned the mechanics of having fun in 'simple terms'. With joy because we shared and witnessed the fun that many of us do now share and enjoy as well. . . in 'simple terms'. It is with nostalgia that I remember our first camping trip in the company of, among others, Brother Rudy Cruz and Brother Vohievette Vasquez, both are now gone before us. A special mention goes to Brother Art & Gie Rivera, the couple who almost ended up in Palm Springs on the way to Lake Perris (our first campsite), in an effort to win one of the three good-sized trophies of the 1st Car Rallye.

Oh yes, except for a couple of years, every camping trip was preceded with a Car Rallye (introduced by Dan Nino) that really, by itself, became a most-fitting long week-end fun opener. Aside from the top three winners, the most creative driver and navigator gets recognized too.

Enthused to share our first camping experience, the 2nd annual family get-away was advertised in the Philippine News (a California Filipino newspaper), hoping for more participation. Indeed, the headcount at the campsite was a stunning two hundred seventy-five! In fact, we did not anticipate that much. The kitchen tradition that we now observe became imperative that second year. We had no choice. Ready or not, with that number of participants (as one whispered to me at that moment that we were not), suddenly, everyone felt the responsibility of making it a truly wholesome family adventure . . . enriching a family tradition.

Imagine, from some thirty, way back 15 years ago, now to some three hundred more or less, at one time over four hundred attendees!

Yes, year after year, different chairpersons are appointed before the camp is over to serve for the following year. Various committees are in place to assure that necessary provisions and logistical requirements are attended to. William Chua is close to becoming an emeritus in his committee. Brother Christian almost became one with our 50-cup rice cooker. Too many among us are unsung heroes, indeed. Our grateful thanks to all your services. We do recognize that. Service for service sake . . . that is Leadership!

Today we can only share that which we learned and experienced. We can only share the responsibility that makes our every effort worth the fun and adventure that we all want every now and then . . . not so much for ourselves but for our family and for our children. Sooner or later, we may find ourselves on the sideline while our children become much better (or much worse) than who we once were and who we are now. We can only thank Him for nature's beauty. . . for the gift of life, for our company, for our Friendship, and for countless blessings that we oftentimes seem to take for granted.

We thank our friends for joining us and making our camping trips an even more wholesome family experience that it is. Certainly, your presence and participation makes us even more.

To our children, many of whom are now growing to be responsible teen-agers, we thank you for your friendships. Indeed, at times, you become the compelling reason for our attendance. Moreover, because of your friendships, your parents make and become better friends. Thank you and may all of us realize and better appreciate the value of friendship, true and seasoned, its demands and its responsibilities as well, the experience of growth, satisfaction, and the enrichment it gives to us all.

While some say three days and two nights is not enough. . . maybe so. But, for as long as we enjoy each other's company and friendships, for as long as we are having fun, for as long as the Dads are always willing to do the kitchen, we can look forward to another Memorial week-end that we will always long remember. In the meantime, let us continue to exercise Leadership, wherever we may be; Friendship, regardless; and Service, as an expression of thanks for the countless blessings we receive.

To those who have not had a chance to join us in any of our camping trips, we urge you to give it a try. Brother Melvin can attest . . . the Park Rangers are always there for us. /TFA.

Motherhood

May 14, 2000

Dear Mom,

You are very special to me. You are not just a mom who takes care. You do "extra credit" and give me more than I need. And I know you are not just special to me, you are to yourself. I remember at dawn, you prayed on your knees, you hugged me hard and continued your prayer.

You do most in the house. You do the chores like washing dishes, take out the trash, help me on my homework, and cook. You comfort me when I am sad and do more than a parent is usually to do.

There are three words to summarize this note. "I Love You." I can describe you with these words:

- kind
- hard working
- efficient

I love you mom and I am sure your sons and your husband feel the same way.

Love,
Jeffrey and the rest of the family

Preceding mother's day letter holds true not just with children but among all of us regardless of age. Motherhood epitomizes love, understanding, kindness, patience and forgiving, sacrifices, spiritual guidance, tenderness, encouragement, and reassurance, and thoughtfulness. Motherly love is a splendid miracle, like the mysteries of creation.

Only a mother could fulfill God's purpose in all this world through all of time. She is a proof and tool of God's tender guiding hand. Her love is fashioned after God's enduring love that is endless and unfailing.

Mothers more than any other person leaves the most profound impression on our life. She is the greatest, strongest and most lasting teacher her children have. Other influences come and go, but hers is ceaseless, steady and consistent.

Life Application Verses:

She is clothed with strength and dignity, and she laughs with no fear of the future. When she speaks, her words are wise, and kindness is the rule when she gives instructions. She carefully watches all that goes on in her household. Her children rise up and call her blessed. Proverbs 31:25-28

No man is poor who has a godly mother. Abraham Lincoln
God could not be everywhere, so He made mothers. Anonymous

Camping 2000 . . . the Heat is On!

Bro. Richard Lacson's security network is on the line. He promised us hassle free, one hundred percent satisfaction or your money back. Brother Richard's complicated twenty four-hour blanket protection will ensure smooth blow by blow coverage of the area. He will be our over-all security director for the entire three-day fiasco. Please volunteer your time for Richard. We need keen eyed individuals and life swimmers to cover the campsite areas. Security will coordinate closely with our medical group (Bro. JR Bayani RN and Dr./Bro. Roco) for complete coverage. Cellular phones, binoculars, and APO radios are highly recommended for our communication needs.

Bro. William Chua will bring home the plate. Logistic efforts are now underway to ensure smooth transportation of our "essential needs". Bro William will be the over-all logistic support manager for our world class kitchen and it's accessories. At present, we are now looking for those "rare" and hard to find chefs from Alpha Phi Omega Philippines of Greater Los Angeles.

To tickle your "dura mater" of pleasure, we tapped the creativity talent of no other than Bro. Art Rivera. Brother Art will surprise us with his good to the last drop amusement program of the decade. Brother Art was careful enough not to reveal the details/ contents of his masterpiece program. We are all in for a surprise! Viva APOGLA!
