Be All You Can Be

By Teddy Ramos

It took one week to recover and two weeks to prepare the lift off date – May 27th, 2000. Details and more details pouring in as the days go by. It was indeed a Smoky Robinson's day of my life. Responsibilities with a never ending hymn. "You worried too much", Aileen barked at me, as I look at the lists of things that I might have over-looked. I started talking to myself – I will never go to war without this and without that, Sergeant William Chua is just a phone call away anyhow re-assuring myself for once. I'm so glad Sister Aileen and Brother William's initiatives were always in the line of sight.

The U-haul truck was picked up Friday morning for the start. Bright eyes and always smiling Ella Gomez was all dressed up and ready to go to work. We picked her up and whisked ourselves to the nearest Costco for the shopping spree. It was fun and game as we imagine the needs of our dear brethren. Shopping lists were on hand but nevertheless popped out with more to carry out. After Costco, we went straight to Smart & Final for few left out details we could not get from the other store. So many non-perishable goods, with so little time to play. We went straight to the Gomez's residence for the

Our thanks also go to Angel and Tess Pangilinan for bringing the Lakers to Emma Woods – with free popcorn and refreshments pa. Also, to everyone who contributed to the success of this year’s camping.

Also, they are in the works with Continental Airlines, for a down to earth airfares from your city to the “Lone Star Convention” - Montreal, Toronto and Vancouver included. Please note that the hotel shuttle (every 20minutes) to the convention venue is strictly from George Bush-Intercontinental airport” or (IAH) and not any other airports. The APO-Houston AA are working to serve you more and much more for the Convention! Don't miss it, plan your vacation now!!

ACNA Comele Update

by Chairman Bro. Lester Arevalo

The comelec as of today have not received any application for candidacy for any of the open positions. We (Comelec) are not bothered, disturbed or a bit surprise with this progress or lack of. Very typical of APO practice. We still have a little over than two months to go before the deadline (August 19).

You should be the one who should be bothered, disturbed and concern about this. If I were the voting delegate, I would be wondering and asking these questions:

- 1) Was this the candidates' strategy? If so, does this candidate deserve my vote?
- 2) Did this candidate just decide on the last minute to run?
- 3) Why is this a common practice?
- 4) What can i do to change this?
- 5) Aren't we deserving to have more time to assess each individual candidate?
- 6)

Nagtatanong lang naman. I hope our future candidates have an answer to these questions.

ACNA E-mail distribution list

Finally, ACNA bigwigs headed by Pres. Gene Licauco and VP Bro. Francis Franco with some assistance from APOGCLA have introduced the ACNA email list “email@alphaphiomega.org”. Currently, the list is only composed of ACNA officers, AA presidents and staff. Additional subscriptions to the list will have to be subject to the recommendation of the Alumni president and in agreement with an email policy.

second phase of the preparation –bog down on APO equipment and transfer them to the U-haul truck. The phase two was completed at around 1:30AM. Thanks to Brothers Tony Gomez and William Chua. It was an excellent work-out mind you!

I got up confused while trying to stop the alarm. I had no idea how I got home last night. Brother William left his nest early to pick up the perishable goods. The day for launching, off we go for the long weekend that had already started. I must have driven for an hour in multiple traffic jams in the Thousand Oaks and Oxnard areas. Sister Aileen continuously hawked the cellular phone for last minute details. Brother Fortune Cumigad on the line with his lechon manok and Brother Angel Pangilinan’s unanswered phone summarized the importance of starting the vacation early. Emma Wood here we come!

The first night was fairly basic. Brother Gene Licauco’s entourage pretty much laced our night away. Funny and not so funny jokes was there to stay. Some liked it hot and others liked it cold. They called it watermelon and others called it sashimi. The old guard Remy Martin, also known as GLA tea, was on the rampage. Beers anyone? Semi-frozen Tequila (hello APO Texas!) and scattered limes were awesome. Sister Eleanor Villaver was at the background pushing kuwentong kutsero. With laughing, screaming and Brother William Cajucom’s awesome night flying, a brother running and chasing another brother, President Gene and President Jun’s (Linsangan) spiritual journey, it was a Mardi Gras. Under the sea of stars, laughter reigned as we bid our first day of fun goodbye. Brother Angel, our fellowship director, was there all the way. Thank you Angel!

Food and drinks for the old and the likes. Creative chefs of all kinds and forms showed their skills with passion. Some danced to the beat (Brother Bonjie Ingco) and others rocked (Brother Vic Fisco). Brother Manny Atienza’s swings and other radio blasters were also at the scene adding more confusions to their liking. Just like ant workers, they played their way to the merry go rounds of fun in the art of food science. Brother/Atty. Jun Laset, surrounded by his own fans, gave us a glimpse of his rare home cooking. Brother Mel Villaver’s exotic chef skills was also fun to watch. Our Great Ernesto Ocampo’s (Colonel) fun filled basic home cooking must not be forgotten either. Keith’s demonstration of barbecue galore and frying pans were classics. Brother Art Manaig’s chopping skill was a thrill. A convention of talents beyond anybody’s doubts. The Alamo cry had begun – it’s party time!

As chaos of fun continues, we must acknowledge our security group. Under the leadership of Brother Richard Lacson. The would-be attempt of an intruder was foiled with the swift response of APO security (macho) squad. The APO camp was patrolled 24 hours a day for the whole three days. Mahaba na po. With my closing notes, We would like to thank each and every one for the great fun of memories. Memories that will be cherish for life and beyond. God Bless You All. APO for life, APO for all, APO forever! till then.... Maraming-Maraming Salamat Po. In Leadership, Friendship, and Service.

APO Hiking 2

APOGLA/Troop 1925 annual hiking was held in Hansen Dam last June 11, 2000. Despite a very hot weather, the hikers finished the 10 mile trail without any injuries. This year’s hike was again headed by Bro. Joey Algosio. The hikers proceeded to Bro Joey’s place after the event.

Condolence . . .

Our heartfelt condolence to Bro. Mandy and Naty Javierto for the passing of Naty’s elder brother, Terio Hufana , who died in a tragic accident last Sunday morning at the Hwy. 57 in Buena Park.

According to Bro. Mandy, Terio and his girl friend were just cruising, trying to find the way to his girl friend’s appointment venue in Orange County on Monday. Unfortunately, his car, a red Hyundai Excel, suddenly stops in the middle of the freeway. They tried to push it to the shoulder but got tired easily. The girlfriend ran to the right shoulder while Terio sat inside the car for a while when suddenly a Van full of passengers slumped to his rear and crushed tragically. Terio was pronounced dead on the spot. Most of the passengers in the Van suffered major and minor injuries.

Terio was residing with Bro. Mandy and Naty in the past 3 months. The body is still at the custody of the Coroner’s office until final investigation is concluded. Funeral arrangements will be announced after. You may contact Bro. Mandy and Naty at (909)887-0692.

On behalf of the APOGLA, we are very sorry to hear this sad and tragic passing of Manong Terio. For those who don’t know him, he is with the APO group in most of Inland Empire occasion. The last one was at the christening party at Bro. John Boy in Fontana.

Anger (Temper)

Why do people get angry? Most likely reasons why we get angry: because our pride is hurt or someone made us look like a fool; or maybe when we are confronted about our sinful actions and are exposed; or possibly when someone else is acknowledged or recognized; or maybe when we become jealous of what others have or have done.

What are the effects of anger? Anger creates profane behavior and evil motives in us. It blinds us to what is really good and right. It leads us to conflict and arguments. Uncontrolled anger isolates or separates us from others, temporarily or permanently.

What do we avoid when we are angry?

Whenever you are angry, avoid speaking your mind. You are bound to say something you will regret, and also, avoid acting in impulse in the heat of the anger. Avoid knowingly provoking or infuriating someone to anger. In our situation and in most cases, it might even be better to momentarily retreat and back away until heads are cooled off.

It is among the most primitive of human instincts, whether we are criticized, victimized with some unfair practice or dealings, or even cut off in traffic, our gut response is to react in unjustified actions. One wrongdoing never justifies a second. As adults most especially, we are responsible and accountable for our behavior, whether it is to one another, to the laws of society, and to God and the truth is, we will face the consequences in one way or another.

Of all emotions, anger has the power to fuel hatred and stifle love. Anger in itself is not bad; it is not wrong. God himself gets angry. What we need to look at are the object of our anger, our motive for anger, and the outcome of our anger. Is the expression of anger justified? Calculated? Or is it overkill?

Anger that is self righteous, setting off our pride is self-centered, or more so if it demands its own way, is dangerous. If allowed to continue unchecked, it consumes us. This kind of anger seeks harm and revenge; it seeks to destroy. Thus, it can lead to bitterness and hatred, emotions that can cause violent behavior and wipe out compassion and forgiveness. Our anger often consumes others and even ourselves. The fires of our anger may aggravate our sinful nature and self-righteousness.

LIFE APPLICATION BIBLICAL VERSES:

A gentle answer turns away wrath, but harsh words stir up anger.

Proverbs 15:1

Revenge will backfire on you. Proverbs 26:27

Remember that you can't ignore God and get away with it. Galatians 6:7-8

You're anger can never make things right in God's sight. James 1: 19-20

Stop your anger!... Do not envy others- it only leads to harm. Psalm 37:8

God is slow to get angry with us. Psalm 103:8

SCOUTING UPDATES

Bro. Dony Rondilla, Advancement Chairman

Congratulations to the following scouts of Troop 1925 who successfully advance in their rank after facing their "Board of Review" panel last Saturday, June 10, 2000. Scouts Matthew Ryan Rondilla and Christopher Arcilla advanced from "Second Class" to "First Class" rank. Scouts Sanch Gerald Sy, Joshua Go, and Jason Manaig advanced from "Tenderfoot" to "Second Class" rank. With their advancement, we can now elect our "First Class" scouts to the "Order of the Arrow", BSA's honor unit.

Kudos to Troop & Pack 1925 for their participation in the "Year 2000 Scout-O-Rama" sponsored by the Verdugo Hills Council. Thanks to the scouts, parents, and adult leaders who helped our Troop/Pack sell tickets as one of the Scout-O-Rama requirements and at the same time raise a much-needed fund for our Troop/Pack. Thanks to ASM Sancho Sy, ASM Jim Arcilla and TCC Francis Franco who helped our scouts set-up our booth with our theme "Technology in Motion".

More kudos to scouts of Troop and Pack 1925, together with their parents, siblings, and adult leaders who volunteered their time and effort in a service project to feed the homeless at the L.A. Mission.

Congratulations to Scout K.C. Ingco for his unbridled enthusiasm in ringing up many sales in our latest "Chocolate Sales" fundraising. Please support them in their fundraising efforts.

Summer is just around the corner and we are trying to set summer activities and merit badge programs for our scouts. We begin with their "Court of Honor" and the "Blue & Gold" ceremony to recognize the advancement and accomplishments of our scouts for the year. We have tentatively scheduled it for end of June. We will broadcast the schedule of this event on the GLA e-mail.

"The Scout Oath"

By Bro. Dony Rondilla

"On my honor,
I will do my best...."

Years from now when our scouts have grown, they will look back to the day they first recite the scout oath and find meaning to the significance of a time-honored tradition of keeping a pledge on your honor.

"To do my duty to God and my Country..."

A pledge of duty to two seemingly unrelated abstract and complex notions converging on one's moral being. One awakens the conscience while the other one stirs civic pride and emotion.

"And to obey the Scout Laws..."

The foundation of what is good; a scout is Trustworthy, Loyal, Helpful, Friendly, Courteous, Kind, Obedient, Cheerful, Thrifty, Brave, Clean, and Reverent.

"To help other people at all times..."

A scout's duty to himself ends when his duty to his fellow man begins thus, a scout is expected to "Do a Good Turn Daily".

"And to keep myself physically strong,
mentally awake,
and morally straight..."

Keeping one's self physically strong is a precursor to keeping an active mind. A scout's journey is a quest for learning where he follows a narrow path of morality aided only by his active mind, instinct, and imagination.
